ALPHONSO XII CAPTURED.

Cape Haytien, June 1. A special from Santiago confirming yesterday's bombardment says great events are expected soon. The American warship is in front of the harbor. The insurgents are gathering on the hills. The Spanish have taken extraordinary precautions to guard the harbor entrance.

New York, June 1. A special to the Journal from Hayti says that the Spanish troops about 1,000 men, with troops and coal on board, were captured on Monday off Cape Haytien by the auxiliary cruiser St. Paul, Capt. Sigbee. The St. Paul fired 17 shots before the troops surrendered, and several of them took effect.

THE CAPTURE DISCREDITED.

Key West, Fla., June 1, 4:30 P. M. The last report received from Don Jose Schuler, dated Saturday night, says nothing about the reported capture of the Spanish auxiliary cruiser Alfonso XII by the United States auxiliary cruiser St. Paul and other vessels. The officers of the St. Paul have heard nothing of the affair.

SPAIN CLAIMS VICTORY.

Madrid, June 1, 7 P. M. [In the Senate today Count Camarillo asked if the news of the American capture at Santiago de Cuba was official.]

The minister of marine, Capt. Anson, replied, answering: "The news is a good one, but for further victories which the courage and high merit of our sailors give reason to hope for."

The Senate then unanimously voted with satisfaction on the brilliant victory of the Spanish fleet.

REFUSED GORMAN AMENDMENT.

Washington, June 1. The Senate refused to accept the Gorman amendment for a tax on corporations of more than $250,000 income in the war revenue bill. The vote was 27 to 31.

CASTELLAR THREATENED.

Madrid, June 1. Emilio Castellar is threatened with prosecution for a violent article attacking the Queen Regent. The article is believed to indicate his aspirations as the possible president of a Spanish republic.

REPORT CONFIRMED.

Madrid, June 1, 7 P. M. In the Senate today the minister of marine confirmed the Spanish reports of the fighting off Santiago de Cuba.
